THE DAY IN COURT

Boardman Wins His $7000 Suit.

FIREMAN'S FUND MUST SETTLE

Supreme Court Decision Rendered and First Judge is Occupied With Probate Cases.

The First Judge took up the probate matters that had been set for the day yesterday morning, and several were disposed of. There was no session of court in the afternoon.

Judge Edings was occupied all day in the hearing of G. E. Boardman vs. the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company, which is a suit brought to collect $7,000 insurance in consequence of the burning down of plaintiff's house by the Board of Health during the plague, defendant's policy at that time covering the property in the amount sued for. Hatch & Silliman represented the defendant, and Andrews, Peters & Andrade the plaintiff. The taking of evidence was completed and argument was had. Instructions were given to the jury after 5 o'clock, and the "twelve good men and true" retired to deliberate upon the case. At 5:30 they returned to the court room with a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $7,000.

COURT NOTES.

In the matter of the estate of Lolekane, deceased, Nawahine, by his attorney, Cecil Brown, and by leave of court, has filed his discontinuance of his petition for letters of administration.

The Ewa Plantation Company has filed its bond on appeal in the trespass suit brought by Kalau, in which it is defendant, and in which $50 damages was awarded plaintiff.

The case of J. R. Burns vs. the Mutual Telephone Company has been dismissed by Judge Edings, on motion of defendant, upon the ground that the court has no jurisdiction to hear the same.

In the case of Manuel de Quadros vs. W. F. Frear et al. which came up yesterday morning before Judge Edings, Robinson & Wilder, attorneys for defendant, moved to strike out the plaintiff's amended complaint, on the ground that it was not an amendment to the complaint. The motion was denied, and defendant allowed five days in which to answer. An exception was filed by plaintiff's attorneys.

In the case of H. M. Mist vs. Kaploian Estate, Limited, the defendant has filed its bill of exceptions on appeal to the Supreme Court.

DIVORCE.

In the suit for divorce of Kalani Noholoa vs. David Noholoa, in which divorce is asked for on the ground that the libelee is a leper, return of summons was yesterday made, showing service upon the libellant at Kalaupapa, Island of Molokai, on May 25th.

PROBATE.

Upon the nomination of Joseph M. Oat, administrator of the estate of Frederick B. Oat, deceased, and the concurrence of E. P. Dole on behalf of the Treasurer of the Territory, Dan H. Case was yesterday appointed appraiser, to make appraisal and report in the matter of the estate of Frederick B. Oat, deceased.

Upon petition of Alice Maud Gaskell Luce, the will of W. S. Luce, deceased, has been admitted to probate, and petitioner appointed executrix under the same.

GUARDIANSHIP MATTERS.

Benjamin L. Marx was yesterday, on his own petition, appointed guardian of the property and person of Alexander Martin Moore, of San Francisco, under $500 bonds, said petition showing that the father of said minor, who was the duly appointed guardian, is now deceased. The property referred to is a certain parcel of land situated on the corner of Beretania and Piikoi streets.

The first judge of the First Circuit Court yesterday issued an order approving the final accounts and ordering the discharge of David Dayton as guardian in the guardianship matter of William Washington Hart, Henry Washington Hart, Edward Washington Hart, and George Washington Hart.

FEDERAL COURT.

George Hayward and Leonard Perry yesterday pleaded guilty to a charge of assault and battery on one Valentine Ballard on board the American vessel Abner Coburn, they being the first and second mates of said vessel, and were, by Judge Estee, sentenced to three months' imprisonment in Oahu jail, hearing and all proceedings having been waived.

Kinsatara Fomishima, of Hawaii, was yesterday adjudged a bankrupt, and the matter was referred by the Federal Court to Thomas C. Ridgeway, Esq., referee in bankruptcy for the Island of Hawaii. It was ordered that the first meeting of the creditors be held in the office of the referee, on June 24, at 10 o'clock, at which time said bankrupt is ordered to be present.

SUPREME COURT DECISION.

The Supreme Court has rendered a unanimous decision on the submitted case without action, of P. D. Kellett Jr. vs. Bishop & Co., and Augusta Johansen. The plaintiff, Kellett, was appointed guardian of C. Lundahl, adjudged an insane person. Lundahl, about a month previous, deposited $1,000 in Bishop & Co's Bank, in payment of a draft on the Bank of California, at San Francisco, payable to the order of Miss Augusta Johansen. No duplicate of the draft was issued. Lundahl retained the draft in his own possession, and it is now in the possession of P. D. Kellett as his guardian. Kellett demanded the return of the $1,000; the Bank of California would neither accept nor pay said draft without its delivery to it of the draft, properly endorsed. Augusta Johansen was informed of the issuance of the draft, and notified Bishop & Co. not to pay the draft to any other person than herself.

If the Supreme Court should decide that Augusta Johansen has no title or interest in the draft, then Bishop & Co. were ready to pay the amount to Kellett. The court decides that no right accrued to Augusta Johansen to collect or enforce payment or the delivery of the draft. The plaintiff as guardian has the same rights and power with reference to the draft as his ward, if sane, would have had; and, as he may properly do, has now withheld, or revoked the draft. The law, as stated, in the syllabus, is as follows: "The payee of a bank draft which has not been delivered, but withheld and revoked, acquires no title to or interest in such draft."

Robertson & Wilder are attorneys for plaintiff, and Holmes & Stanley and Lyle A. Dickey, for defendants.

FROM HONOLULU.

Miss Davison and Party at Salt Lake City.

An educational party from Honolulu arrived in this city yesterday morning, en route to the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo, and registered at the Knutsford, continuing East by the early afternoon train over the Rio Grande. The travelers included Miss Rose C. K. Davison, Commissioner of Public Instruction of Hawaii; Miss M. Smith, a school teacher and daughter of the clerk of the Territorial Supreme Court; Miss A. S. Phillips, secretary to Miss Davison, and Miss Ordway, a full-blooded native maid. Misses Davison and Smith are half-native. The party are carrying to the exposition an exhibit of scholastic work from the Hawaiian Islands. This includes many samples of bamboo, grass and straw weavings, sewing and Sloyd work; ancient Hawaiian implements, drawings, paintings, seeds, shells and specimens from various departments of school work. The Territorial Legislature appropriated $3,500 to make this exhibit.

The party was presented to the Governor, Mayor and Secretary of State at the joint building, by whom they were pleasantly received, and saw as much of the town as they could during their short stay. They said there was some 4,000 school children in Honolulu alone, and that street boys there are much more polite than in San Francisco. Miss Davison is of Herculean stature, and gave a sort of John L. Sullivan impression at the hotel.—Salt Lake Tribune, May 5th.

THE BISCUITS WERE ALRIGHT

Chef Wyman's Auditors Afraid That They Would Burn.

Chef Wyman's matinee at Progress Hall yesterday afternoon was attended by a number of society ladies who were much interested in the manner in which muffins, biscuits and coffee were made. During the baking of the biscuits the chef gave interesting data concerning the proper way to cook. Most of the ladies, however, were worried during the discourse for fear the chef had forgotten just how many minutes the biscuits were in the oven, and he was interrupted by several feminine ejaculations—"The biscuits, the biscuits!" The chef told them not to worry; that he had his mind on them. In due time they were taken out and distributed, as light and dainty as one could wish them. Instruction in the making of soups, salads, dressings and other dainty trifles will be continued this morning. Among those present were Mrs. Andrew Fuller, Mrs. J. O. Carter, Mrs. A. W. Pearson, Mrs. L. A. Thurston, Mrs. Atwater, Mrs. Benner, Mrs. Winne, Miss Winne, Miss Fernbach.

My little son had an attack of whooping cough, and was threatened with pneumonia; but for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy we would have had a serious time of it. It also cured him from several severe attacks of croup.—H. J. Strickland, editor World-Herald, Fair Haven, Wash. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents.
